Lateral Academy Requirements and Consideration Factors

In order to be eligible for the Indiana State Police Lateral Academy, you must meet the basic eligibility requirements listed above, in addition to the following:

Must have a minimum of three (3) continuous years of full-time, paid, law enforcement experience (sworn or merit) having graduated from a state accredited police academy (entry level law enforcement basic training curriculum); in which the essential job functions were performed at a satisfactory level or above, as witnessed by the employer or documented by employee evaluations. Paid law enforcement experience does not include employment as a reserve officer, special deputy, jailor, matron, radio operator, etc. even if these duties were performed as a sworn or merit officer. It includes only full time, paid employment as a sworn or merit officer performing law enforcement functions.

Must be currently employed as a law enforcement officer or may not have a lapse of employment as a law enforcement officer of more than three years.

Non-resident applicants graduating from a law enforcement academy outside the State of Indiana must complete the Indiana Law Enforcement Academy/Law Enforcement Training Board waiver process as determined by the Superintendent.
